AMBULANCE ALERT: Imagine a dark night... you need medical help... you call 911. How the heck do you think the EMTs are going to find you? Here's how! Let the dispatcher know there will be someone to meet the ambulance. Send a friend to wait at the park entrance to pilot the EMTs to the correct site. Did you know that due to privacy laws the only information disclosed to paramedics is your site# and road? They don't even know WHO needs medical attention. Day or night - this is how you get help sooner than later.

Last summer, new toilets were installed in all the park bathrooms. To keep costs down:
