Why do RVers have shins? So they can find their trailer hitches in the dark!

REMINDER WHEN SELLING YOUR RV AT COYOTE HOWLS:

Please notify the office if you are putting your rig up for sale BEFORE you list it or give it away. There are steps in place to make it a smooth transition for everyone involved. Communication is key. You and your buyer WILL run into trouble if the site you promised is being held for a Premium member. Can we avoid that, pretty please? Remember:

- SITES AND RENTS ARE NOT TRANSFERRABLE
- ALL BUYERS (EVEN IF THEY CURRENTLY RENT A SITE) NEED TO BE APPROVED IF THE RIG PLANS TO STAY AT THE PARKS

All the dumpsters in the East Park have been moved to the office area where there are cameras. Please only place HOUSEHOLD GARBAGE in the dumpsters and take your junk to the landfill. Thank you!

We welcome your visitors! But, please remember to register any overnighters in the office when they arrive so they are not mistaken for wayward scallywags or scoundrels.

"Why do they always want to do it the hard way?"
